Tuesday Morning Prayers continue! This fall we are practicing Dwelling in the Word, an adaptation of the ancient prayer practice of Lectio Divina. Join us once or each Tuesday from 7-7:30 a.m. at <https://zoom.us/j/93803392337>. See Pastor Wanda for more details.

Sunday, October 4 is World Communion Day, a day when churches around the world celebrate the Lord's Supper and remember that God's kingdom transcends boundaries and offers love to all. Deacons have decided that while we are unable to meet in person we will also refrain from eating Communion together. It is in part, an act of solidarity with people who are suffering the world over in this time of pandemic. In this way, the broken body of Christ enters into the brokenness of the world and partakes in Christ's and the world's suffering. A longer reflection may be found in the October Menno-Life. Please pray in solidarity for the world's healing and wholeness.

Additional new news

All are welcome to attend an information meeting on Sunday, October 11 at 2 p.m. to learn about a proposed resolution to be brought to the Mennonite Church USA convention next year that would rescind the membership guidelines related to same-sex marriage. The resolution would also adopt new policies to repair the harm caused by these guidelines. During the information meeting, we will discuss two actions taken recently by church council related to this resolution: 1) joining the Supportive Communities Network; and 2) adding our name to the list of congregations supporting the resolution to rescind the guidelines. We will also invite individuals to add their names to the list of supporters. The resolution can be found at: <https://inclusivepastors.wordpress.com/resolution/>. The information meeting will be held by Zoom at <https://zoom.us/j/91478303460> or by phone at 646-558-8656.

October 11 is Mission Sunday and Rev. Dr. Jack Sullivan, Jr. will be our guest pastor. Rev. Sullivan is a nationally known speaker, social justice advocate and death penalty abolitionist, and is executive director of the Ohio Conference of Churches. In conjunction with his visit, the Racial Justice Ministry invites you to participate in a self-paced, online anti-racism training provided by MCUSA in partnership with Widerstand Consulting, and purchased using Jubilee Funds. The training is comprised of 4 modules (approx. 10 hours of total training) on dismantling racism in congregations. See a full description at: <https://www.mennoniteusa.org/news/anti-racism-training-accessible/>. Contact Jan Wiebe at 419-236-6327 or wiebe.jan@gmail.com with questions or to request access to the training, and a link will be sent to your email. We plan to have some Zoom working sessions to get started on this material together for those who wish (details to come.)

FMC Membership Class 2020: Are you new to First Mennonite Church? Do you want to know more about the church? Are you interested in exploring or refreshing your memory regarding what it means to be a member of this congregation? If so, you're invited to attend a membership class this fall. Like everything these days, the format may need to be adapted. Those who express interest will determine exactly how we'll accomplish this. We'll plan to gather in one way or another on Sunday mornings from 9-10 a.m. Proposed dates are October 25, November 1, 8 and 15. Please contact Pastor Wanda if you have questions or to express interest.

Pastoral concerns

Graveside services will be held for Anna Ruth Reichenbach at 11 a.m., Monday, Oct. 5 at Maple Grove Cemetery, Bluffton. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service at Chiles-Laman Funeral & Cremation Services, Bluffton. Please continue to hold Mona and Anna Ruth's family and friends in your prayers.

Elaine Sommers Rich, longtime FMC member and Bluffton resident, died September 27 in North Manchester, IN. A memorial service will be held at Eel River Church of the Brethren, Silver Lake, IN, at a later date. Please remember her family in your prayers. You may read her obituary at <https://www.mckemortuary.com/obituary/Elaine-Rich>.

Let us remember Mary Amstutz as she recovers from knee replacement surgery which she had on October 1. Prayers for her healing and recovery are greatly appreciated.

Reminders

Bible and Empire: You're invited to join a Bible study led by Ray Person on the first and third Mondays at 8 p.m., beginning Oct. 5, with a specific focus of interpreting the Bible from a postcolonial perspective. A postcolonial perspective takes seriously the role of empire in both the writing of the biblical text and its interpretation in contemporary society, so that issues of power play a central role in interpretation. Because of this, interpretations need to take seriously issues concerning gender, race, and class, both on the writers of the Bible but also on us as interpreters. This class will be by Zoom from 8-9 p.m. at: <https://zoom.us/j/92088366545> (+1-646- 558-8656.) See the FMC Bluffton, Ohio Facebook page for a full description of the study or take a copy from the literature rack in the fellowship hall. If you have questions, contact Ray at r-person@onu.edu.

FMC acknowledges the change in the relationship between pastor and congregation when there is a leave-taking. We have established a Parting Agreement between Theda and the congregation that serves as a tangible reminder of our mutual covenant and this change that has occurred. As we have released Theda from her pastoral responsibilities within this congregation, we also pledge to hold her in our memory and prayers, to welcome her to visit with us from time to time, and support her continued discernment and future ministries. Hard copies of the Parting Agreement will be available in the fellowship hall literature rack.
